PREFACE.

The genealogical record of the Perrin family from 1635, the date of the landing at Braintree, Mass., of its ancestor, to the year 1879, is now offered to those interested.

It is not to be understood that this record embraces all the families, for it contains only the names of those I have been able to procure, and is printed at this time with a view of inducing others to carry on the work.

I thought of printing the registers of the families of the Perrin daughters also, but found it would extend the work and delay it unduly. I have reserved these registers and would be happy to place them at the disposal of any member of the family willing to pursue the subject.

In regard to the manner of spelling the name, I have recorded it as it has been given me. The majority adopt two "r's." My grandfather, Lemuel[6] son of Jesse[5], contended that the name properly contained but one "r" and his example was followed by several of his brothers. The name as traditionally pronounced should have two "r's," and I think it is to be regretted that there was any departure from that standard.

In "The History of Antiquities of the County of Leicester, England," (John Nichols, F. R. S., Vol. III., part 3,) the name Perrin of Ashby, de la Touche, its pedigree and coat of arms is found.

Coat of arms: Field, argent; chevron, sable; pineapple, vert; leopard faces, argent.

Crest, a pineapple, vert. As given by a certain Perrin, made baron in 1805. (See books on heraldry.)

The names Gilbert Perrin, Thomas Perrin, Katherine, Elizabeth, Sarah and Mary Perrin, appear about the beginning of the seventeenth century.

The connecting links between this English family and ours have not yet been obtained, but it is supposed John Perryn, our ancestor, was a member of it. John Perryn, aged twenty-one years, came from London, England, to Braintree, Mass., Aug. 10, 1635, in ship "Safety," John Grant, master.

We have a list of one hundred and forty-four names and the ages of the passengers on board the "Safety" in the voyage of August, 1635. (See MSS. preserved in State department of H. M. Public Record office, page 21. Copy in Boston Genealogical rooms.) In it are the names of several young women called "Ann," one of whom we conjecture became the wife of John Perryn. (See further evidence.)

He, with Dr. Samuel Newman and his church, founded Rehoboth, Mass.; his name, variously spelled, appears in those town records, Perryn, Perrin, Perrine, Perryne, Perin.

The tombstone of John Perryn, the first of his family in this country, is found in Rehoboth, Mass.

Whenever a date is given without qualification, it has been copied from a family Bible, tombstone, or other trustworthy record.

The system of arrangement is as follows: "Consecutive numbers are placed on the left of the margin against those who bear the name of Perrin. No two names receive the same number, although the same name may appear twice under different numbers, first as child, then as parent. In order to find the name consult index, where all Christian names are arranged alphabetically. Since the same Christian name often occurs, the actual year of birth is prefixed to each name to assist in determining which person of the common Christian name is meant. The number after each name is the consecutive number. Turn to this number in the body of the book and record will be found of the first appearance of the person as a child. Should a bracketed [ ] number be found after the name it refers to a subsequent record of the same person as a parent. When a bracketed number does not appear after the name, no further information concerning that person will be found. In like manner, immediately after the name of a parent, will be found a bracketed number which refers back to the entry of the same man when he appears as a child.

After the name of a parent his pedigree is indicated in parentheses ( ) with small figures above showing to what generation the name belongs; thus the parent's name may be George^{6}, father's name, Joseph^{5}, grandfather's, Samuel^{4}, and so on down to John^{1}.

Blank leaves are inserted where families can supply deficiencies in their records or continue them.

This record has been compiled from correspondence with members of families referred to in it, and from information furnished by our kinsmen, Mr. Noah Perrin, of Wellesley Hills, Mass., and Mr. Parley Ide Perrin, of Taunton, Mass.

PERRIN FAMILY GENEALOGY.

1. John Perryn.—b. 1614; d. Sept. 13, 1674.

It appears from a book entitled "Emigration to America from 1600 to 1700" (Boston Genealogical Library) that John Perryn came to this country from London, England, in the ship "Safety," John Grant, master, in the month of August, 1635, and landed at Braintree, a small town on the south shore of the harbor of Boston, Mass. There he married and resided until he, with the Rev. Samuel Newman and his church, founded Rehoboth, Mass. His name, variously spelled, subsequently appears in the Rehoboth town records. He was buried there.

Ann Perryn, supposed to be the widow of John Perryn, was buried at Rehoboth, Mass., March 11, 1688. It is presumed that she was one of the Anns named in the list of passengers that came to this country in the same ship with John Perryn.

Five children.

8, 1790. Daughter of Samuel Morris, of Roxbury, Mass. While her husband, who was an officer in the war with France, was serving in Canada, she, at their home in Putnam, raised a large crop of carrots herself, and kept a stock of cattle, through a severe winter, from starvation. Their descendants to the sixth generation owned and occupied the house built by his father for him. The estate, originally purchased of the Indian agent, is yet theirs. She was a powerful woman in mind and body, and a near relative of the late Commodore Morris, U. S. navy.
